Data spaces are where sovereign data exchange happens.

The IDS standard enables trustworthy data exchange among certified data providers and recipients, based on mutually agreed rules. Data spaces improve cooperation, lower the barriers to entry and enhance innovation.

Data exchange and data processing along the data value chain.